Mr. Steven J. H. Van Hengel,

Dear Steven,

It was so nice to hear from you. I have been trying to get a copy of your golfing book but without success.

My secretary has rung the 8 leading booksellers in various parts of England who I know, but I have asked Sotherans to advertise for a copy in the booksellers' trade journal.

I think it best if you do not ask any other bookseller to find you a copy as it merely creates an artificial market and puts the price up. It is obvious that it is a very difficult book to find but I will persevere.

Do let me know when you come to England as it would be nice to see you again.

Please remember me to your Partners.

Yours sincerely,

Tom Golby
