Dear Steven -

It was indeed a pleasure to meet you, finally, at the British meeting of the Golf Collectors' Society at the Royal Cinque Ports Golf Clubhouse two weeks ago Friday - and wasn't that an elegant buffet?

Have heard and read so much about you in Joe Murdoch's bulletin - the recent story of your sleuthing on the painting that turns out to be a Dutch boy rather than Henry Frederick was fascinating.

We spoke of the Duke University golf camp where I present a slide talk on the history of golf each summer - and where Ed Cottrell assists Rod Myers - Rod is a "class" fellow - so is Ed.

The names of the Dutch boys who have attended either in 1980 or 1981, or both years are as follows -

Mike Petoom
Danny Slooter
Hein Slooter
Ron Dorrestein
Robin VanErvenDorens
John Pleysier

gth
Some one or other boys told me they know you!

hope I haven't garbled the spelling to the pint where it has become illegible.

Here's hoping our paths cross again one day and that we have more of an opportunity to "visit" than we did at Deall.

Very truly yours -

Jim Drank

Dear John,

Thank you for your letter of the 4th. (Something wrong with the typewriter!). I very much enjoyed meeting you at Royal Cinque Ports G.C. and I can only hope it will not be too long before we meet again. Thank you also for sending me the names of the boys who went to the Duke University golf camp with Rod Myers and Ed Cottrell. Ed in fact comes over to this country once a year to try and promote uniformity in teaching methods of the golf pro's here. Not an easy job as you can imagine.

Yours very Sincerely
Steven

Dear Mr. Marsh,

In the last GCS-Bulletin I was delighted to learn that you had gone to the trouble of producing the missing index to 'Golf in the making' and are kindly offering to produce copies at $ 3.00.

May I ask you to send me one. For simplicity's sake I am enclosing the three dollars in cash.

I certainly look forward to having the index to the book I use so often.

Looking forward to your news and wishing you a Happy Christmas and New Year

yours very truly

Steven J.H. van Hengel

Dear Steven -

Thank you for your remittance - the index is enclosed and I hope you find it useful!

I understand that our mutual friend - Ed Cottrell - was in Holland again this past fall - what a nice gentleman.

All the best for you and yours for the coming holidays and for all of 1982!

Cordially -
