Dear Sir, .

As a faithful subscriber to the Golfers' Handbook
I have notice from your last edition that you are in the process of revising and updating the Handbook.
In this light you might wish to consider the revision of THE ORIGIN OF GOLF on page 80 etc, particularly as regards early golf in the Low Countries in the light of the research of the last 30 years.
I have made free to send you a copy of 'Early Golf'
which I have written some years ago to provide you with the necessary information.
I am, dear Sir,

yours faithfully,

Steven J.H. van Hengel
