

GOLF ILLUSTRATED.

THE WEEKLY ORGAN OF THE "ROYAL & ANCIENT" GAME.

No. 187. Vol. XV.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 9, 1903.

Price Sixpence.

Tee Shots.

In life's small things be resolute and great
To keep thy muscle trained: know'st thou when Fate
Thy measure takes, or when she'll say to thee,
"I find thee worthy; do this deed for me."—Lowell.

Mr. W. C. Gully, the Speaker of the House of Commons, has been re-elected president of the Seaford Club.

"Cannes was very gay during Christmas week," says the Sunday Times, "and there have been very numerous arrivals during the last ten days. The Grand Duke Michael Michaelovitch of Russia and the Countess Torby have already shown hospitality to various friends, amongst whom have been Lord and Lady Brougham and their daughter. The golf links are always full and the club-house has no lack of guests for luncheon. Amongst new arrivals may be mentioned Lord and Lady Sandhurst, Lord and Lady Brougham, the Hon. Eleanor Brougham, Sir T. and Lady Brunton, Lady Cottenham, Lady Lennard, the Grand Duke of Mecklenburg-Schwerin, Sir Coleridge Kennard, Count and Countess Hermann de Pourtales, and Miss Pomeroy, Mrs. Duff, the Right Hon. C. T. Ritchie, Lady Murray, Miss Brunton, and Mr. and Mrs. T. Huger-Pratt."

SOME MEMBERS OF THE BATAVIA GOLF CLUB.

J. Jones.

R. Butterworth.

C. A. Gardiner.

D. D. Frazer.

A. B. Macdonald.
J. C. Ferrier.

P. C. Adrian.

B. C. Criswick
(Hon. Sec. and Treas.)

Wm. C. Grieve.
(President.)

W. H. Schulz.

During the New Year's competition of the St. Andrews Golf Club a most uncommon incident occurred. A competitor drove off towards the third hole from the tee at the "corner o' the dyke," while a goods train was passing, and his ball, landing in one of the trucks, was carried away. It may be mentioned that a notice-board is there to the effect that players should not play while a train is passing.

Golf is spreading all over the East, and Indians, Cingalese, Burmese, Javanese, Chinese, and Japanese are fast becoming familiar with the white man's game and its fascinations. I have pleasure in giving a photo of some members of the Batavia Golf Club at the door of their club-house. The Batavia golfers look sturdy men. The club has been established for several years, and is in a most flourishing condition.