Dear Douglas, I was speaking to Mr. de Court this afternoon, and he asked me the number of professionals who would be competing against the amateurs on Oct 9th, at "de Pan".
I told him the customary eight would compete and he expressed regret that the number was not ten.
He seems particularly anxious that ten sides should be played, and I told him that I would write you this evening, and put the matter to you.
I told him, of course, how the ranks of the pros.
had been depleted through the loss of Barnes, Guy, etc; and also that we did not intend playing Jacob because he was no longer an active professional.

As I remember it, the team chosen was yourself, Josh, Dirk, Witte, Blansjaar, Kring, Dumm, and myself.

Mr. de Court sees no objection to Jacob playing, so if you could arrange with him and, say, Ragless, the ten players could be put out.
In the event of Ragless being unable to play, perhaps Josh's brother Willem could fill the gap.

quay, Douglas, you will see what can be done, and if you will let Mr. del Court know the earliest opportunity it will give him a few opportunity of arranging his amateur side.
Holland team leave on Thursday or day for Trefeld, to compete against morning on Sunday.

all the best,
Bert.

trust it will be possible to me to play against Mr. Kerkhoven — as a special favour
