Dear Douglas

Thanks for your letter - We will use all the money for prizes as you are of that opinion. I have also told Mr. P. van Elden, that we would rather do that. So that will be alright.

A friend of mine a Mr. Walker promised me 100 Guilders. I do not know if you remember him - He was here when the Harlequin Cup was played here.

If all my promises materialise. I hope to get at least 350 Guilders, but don't say this yet, as although I am pretty sure. You can never tell.

The boys I am sure were quite satisfied with the Samink and I have no doubt that Lambert and Co. will prefer to stay there. I only spoke to the man at the Hotel opposite on your suggestion, and of course I have promised him nothing.

I am jolly sorry that Ragless can't get away. We would liked to have seen him here, but business must be attended too.

Like you I am playing awful gay - I was playing alright, but know I have so many lessons, I simply have no expeidience - but that may come back in time. Anyway the most important point is that when you come here, you have a really good time, and I think you will. Hope the "baby" is doing well and the wife. We have never seen her. I played with Mr. Tunitorn yesterday. In fact I do once a year. He seems a nice chap. I like him anyway. No news! all the best

Sincerely yours
Frank
