Dear Douglas,

I regret I will be unable to travel to Brussels on Wednesday, as I am feeling very unwell. I have developed a host of rheumatism, and a bit of lumbago, and feel pretty miserable.

As the team is picked, it will not cause any inconvenience.

I am disappointed to have to put off the trip, but cannot face the prospect of being away from home and crippled up with lumbago.

Trust that you and the boys will have a good time and prove victorious in the matches.

Dick will travel down on Wednesday evening by the 10-32 train from the Hague, and will see you probably at Rosendaal.

All the best, and good luck to the team.

Yours sincerely

Bert.
